London, November 9.

YEsterday Morning arriv'd two Mails from Ostend. The freshest Letters by them are of the 17th of November N. S. and (as we are imform'd) import, that since the Detachment under the Earl of Stairs took Possession of Dixmuyde, the Army commanded by the Duke of Marlborough has march'd from Rousselaer, and is now encamp'd at and about Weulpe on the Canal between Furnes and Newport: That a Detachment of 6000 Men from our Army have posted themselves on the other Side of the said Canal along the Sea-Coast between Dunkirk and Newport; by which Means the Communication of the Enemy's Army with Dunkirk by Land, is absolutely cut off: That the Districts of Gravelines, St Omer, and Bourbourg have sent Deputies to treat of Contributions with my Lord Duke: and that the Inhabitants of all that Part of the Country, continue to supply our Army with Plenty of all sorts of Provisions. These Letters add, that the French Soldiers garrison'd in Fort Plassendael, desert continually to Fort St. Philip belonging to Ostend; and that on the 16th a whole Company of them came over.

Letters from Ghent of the 14th which came by these Ostend Mails, Advise, that in the great Council of War held very lately at Tournay by the Duke de Vendome, M. de Chamillard and the French and Spanish General Officers, the French gave their Opinion that considering the present Circumstances of Affairs in Flanders, and the Condition of their own Troops, it was expedient for them to abandon Ghent and Bruges; but the Count de Bergeyk and the Spanish Generals being of a contrary Sentiment, M. de Chamillard set out immediately for the Court of France, to report to the King the Reasons urg'd on both sides, and to receive his Majesty's Resolution and Orders thereupon.

London, November 9.

Yesterday in the Evening arriv'd the two Mails due from Holland.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Nov. 16.

Paris, Nov. 9. Since the Return of M. de Chamillard, 'tis reported it was resolv'd in the Councils of War held at Tournay to continue the Campaign; and that the General Officers have receiv'd Order to return to their Posts, and keep the Enemy from repassing the Schelde or receiving Convoys. The Enemy continue to fortify la Bassee and some other small Places, whence they continually make Excursions. The Garrison of Bethune is very diligent to observe them; and the Magistrates of the frontier Places, to prevent all Surprize have given Notice that the Markets will not be kept in the usual Places, but only without the Towns, whither the Peasants may bring their Corn and other things. M. de Chelader is detach'd from the Army of the Duke of Burgundy, with 11 Squadrons, to joyn the Cavalry in Artois and oppose the Enemy's Excursions.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Nov. 13.

Lisle, Nov. 8. On the Left of our Attack we have lodg'd our selves on three Angles of the first Cover'd Way: On the Right we have likewise made a Lodgment on an Angle of the said Cover'd Way; and we are working to make our selves intirely Masters of it: which will be by Sapping, in much the same Manner as the Cover'd Way of Aeth was taken. 'Tis hop'd this will be done within two Days. The Enemy have but few Men in it, and they fire but sparingly in the Day-time; whence we conjecture they have but little Powder. We have begun to work to drain the Ditch. Our Batteries are ready, but will not begin to fire till we are intire Masters of the Cover'd Way. The Number of our Batteries is as follows: One of 24 Pieces of 24 pound Ball, one of 8 Pieces of 12 Pounders, three others of 8 Cannon, one of 17 Mortars, one of 12 Hauwitzers, one of 8 Mortars, one of 6 Hauwitzers, and one of 13 twelve pounders.

Tho' there are 3 Ditches to pass and 2 Cover'd-Ways, before we can come at the Body of the Place, yet we hope to be Masters of it by the End of this Month. We have the fineft Weather we could have wish'd for: Barracks are making for the Troops at Rousselaer; and Winter-Quarters are no more talk'd of than if the Campaign was but beginning. We have in the Army at Rousselaer and here Provisions and Forrage in Abundance for all this Month; and more is getting in daily. 'Tis reported the Enemy want many things, and that they pay a greater Price than we.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Nov. 16.

Hague, Nov. 14. Letters brought hither by the Post from Lisle, dated the 11th Instant, contain no News about the Siege of the Citadel, more than that in general all went well: But other Letters from thence, by the Way of Brabant, tell us the Besiegers had made themselves Masters of the first Cover'd-Way, that the Batteries had not yet begun to play.

Advices by the Way of Brussels, say, that the Detachment commanded by the Earl of Stairs, surpriz'd on the 9th 4 Companies of Grenadiers who were guarding a Bridge between Ipres and Newport; and that on the 11th they possess'd themselves by Surprize of the Town of Furnes.

Hague, Nov. 16. 'We have receiv'd no Letters 'from the Army under the Duke of Marlborough, 'or from the Besiegers of the Citadel of Lisle, since 'those dated the 8th Instant; the Couriers being 'stop'd by the Enemy. So that we know not right-'ly what passes in those Parts: But from the Ac-'counts we have had of the increasing of the Forces, 'detach'd on both sides, on the Frontier of Artois, 'we expect to hear shortly of an Action there. 'They write from Brussels, that an Express was ar-'riv'd there from Vienna, with Letters for Prince 'Eugene, advising that General Heister had defeated 'the Hungarian Malecontents near Agria.

Letters from Italy, say the Imperialists have possess'd themselves of Bondeno, making the Garrison of 1200 Men Prisoners of War: That they are also Masters of Stellata: That General Marsigli had caus'd the Fortifications of Lagoscuro to be blown up, and had withdrawn the Garrison of that and some other expos'd Places, in order to strengthen the Garrison of Ferrara, near the Gates of which the Imperialists had begun to shew themselves: And that he is since gone Post to Rome, to acquaint the Pope in what Condition Affairs are in the Ferrareze.

The Marquis de Prie is arriv'd at Rome, but has not yet had Audience of the Pope: who 'tis said has refus'd the Mediation of the Venetians, which the Emperour had accepted.

5000 French Soldiers have been lately landed at Messina.

A Squadron of British Ships is arriv'd at Leghorne, there to take in Provisions, and proceed ('tis said) to Naples, to assist in an Expedition against Sicily.

By its incomparable Perfume it ſtrengthens the Brain, revives the Spirits, quickens the Memory, but never raiſes the Vapours in Ladies; it alſo ſcents Handkerchiefs excellently. Since it has been ſo exceedingly admir'd and valu'd by the Nobility and Gentry, it has been baſely counterfeited, therefore take Notice that the true is to be had only at Mr. Allcraft's, a Toyſhop, at the Blue-Coat-Boy, againſt the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

It makes it grateful to all ſorts of People, neither is it offenſive to Ladies, (too common to perfumes) but raiſes and enlivens in the very Inſtant all the ſenſitive Faculties, and by its delectable Odour, makes Chearful, Merry, and Pleaſant; renders all common Snuffs Wholeſome, and more beneficial; diſpels Hypocondriac Diſaffections, removes Sadneſs, Drowſineſs, and Dullneſs, cures Vapours and Head-achs, though of long ſtanding; and is highly eſteem'd and valu'd by abundance of Perſons of the beſt Rank and Quality. It is only ſold at Mr. Allnutt's, Glover, at the corner of Pope's-head-Alley, againſt the Royal Exchange; and at Mrs. Giles's, Milliner and Toyſhop, next the Hercules Pillars Alley, near the Temple, Fleetſtreet, at 2 s. each Glaſs, with Directions.

The Vapours in Women infallibly Cured in an Inſtant, ſo as never to return again, by an admirable Chymical Secret, a few drops of which takes off a Fit in a Moment, diſpels Sadneſs, clears the Head, takes away all Swimming, Giddineſs, Dimneſs of Sight, Flushings in the Face, &c. to a Miracle, and moſt certainly prevents the Vapours returning again; for by Rooting out the very Cauſe it perfectly Cures as Hundreds have experienc'd: It alſo ſtrengthens the Stomach and Bowels, and cauſes Livelineſs and ſettled Health.
